I AM LOVED.

POETRY.

BY ELIZABETH YOUATT.

Jubilate! I am loved! And his lips at length have said it-Long since in his eyes I read it, But I thought it could not be-Ah! what happiness for me!

Jubilate! I am loved! Now am I like a little queen, And very pleasant 'tis I ween; Whatsoe'er I do or say Seemeth good and right alway.

Jubilate! I am loved-To see him kneeling at my feet. Oh / it is sweet-'tis very sweet / Every day and every hour Do I glory in my power!

Jubilate! I am loved! So dearly loved, that till I prayed, I was more than half afraid; Lord! forgive my sins and make Me pure and good for his dear sake!

Jubilate! I am loved! Lord! forgive my glorying! To thy dear cross I meekly cling! Let the love he beareth me Lead him -lead us both - to Thee /

The Umbrella Girl.

Isaac T. Hopper, the well known Quafriend of the friendless, and sedulously devoted his long life to deeds of benevolence. Untold numbers of persons have been rescued from misery, degradation and ruin, by his kind essistance, support and counsel, and now live to bless their benefactor. The following interesting tale of truth showed how tenderly he wooed a wanderer back to virtue's path and how tenderly he rebuked those who meditated the destruction of the poor and the lowly.

On the eventful Fourth of July, she came out in her dress. Lord Henry complimented her on her elegant appearance, but she was not happy. On their way he talked to her in a manner that she did not comprehend. Perceiving this, he spoke more explicity. Tell me all thou hast done. . If thou hast taken this silk, tell me all about it; I will do for thee as I would for my own daughter, and I doubt not I can help thee out of this difficulty."

After a long time spent in affectionate entreaty, she leaned her young head on his friendly shoulder, and sobbed out, "Oh, I wish I was dead; what will my poor mother say when she knows of my disgrace ?"

"Perhaps we can manage so that she never shall know it," replied be. Alluring her by this hope, he gradually obtained from her the story of her acquaintance with the nobleman. He bade her be comforted and take nourishment, for he would see that ker philanthropist, was emphatically the the silk was paid for, and the prosecution withdrawn.

I am opposed to the so-called American or Know-Nothing party. In my opinion, its organization is anti-republican and contrary to the true theory of our government and the fundamental principles of the Constitution. I have not affiliated with or voted the ticket of this party. It is not the Whig party, either open or disguised; but boasts of having risen upon the ruins and corruptions of both the old parties .-Mr. Fillmore is the candidate of the Ameplatfrorm -a platform which I do not aprempant of it which has not joined the abolition party, while Mr. Fillmore himself is the candidate of the Southern wing and repudiated by the North. The great question of domestic slavery, in all its bearings, is paramount to all others in this presidential election. It ought not, and cannot be ignored or made subordinate to others of less signification by any true Southern man Upon this question th Democratic party occupies, in an eminent degree, the highest conservative, constitutional and national ground. It is truly national. It is the only party now in existence which can meet together, discuss and adopt principles and resolves, on this subject, of the same or even of a similar character in every and in all sections of our country. There is no organized whigh party, and no whig candidate in the field Mr. Fillmore is careful to repeat that h not the Whig, but the "American" candidate, and speaks of the Whigs as "former associates." He is a "member the order." In choosing between him therefore, and other candidates, there is no compromise of Whiz principles A true Whig may act as his conscience dictates, inbiassed by other obligations.

But there is another consideration of the greatest moment in reference to the pending presidential election. The contest is practically between the Democratic and Abolition parties. There is not the slightest probability that Mr. Fillmore can be elected president by the electoral Colleges. If he should succeed in getting one or two ter of the Union, the only effect of it ight possibly be not to elect him in any contingency, but to give the election to the present House of Representatives, from which every true patriot and honest man, will excritical circumstances which surround us, I sincerely believe that the Union and the Constitution and the rightful equality of the States, under the Federal compact. are in imminent peril: and leaving others to judge for themselves, for myself I feel it to be my duty to vote in company with throughout the nation, for the candidates of that party which will have the ability, n political power, as well as the patriot disposition to preserve and perpetuate the Union, the Constitution and the equality of the States. Under existing circumstances the party of which Mr. Fillmore is he candidate, cannot in any probable contingency, be in a position to exercise such an influence. And the nominees of the Democratic party are the only candidates now before the people, who may have it in their power to prolong if not to perpetnate the blessings which are guaranteed to us by the free institutions under which

Buchanan and Breekinridge, who are eminently qualified for the highest positions in the government, and who are the candidates most likely to defeat Fremont, the sectional and abolition candidate, and to be able, under Divine Providence, to allay the fanatical strife and the bitter and bloody distractions which now unhappily divide our country and threaten the very existence of the Constitution, and the Union. We who believe that the trimmph of Democratic principles is essential not only to the prosperity of the Union, but even to the preservation of the Constitution, ought reciprocally to forget, and, if need be, to forgive the past, and cordially unite with our political brethren in sustaining for the future the good o'd cause of thousands of firm and true old line Whigs Democracy. It must be a source of deep and lasting pleasure to every patriotic heart that our beloved country has so happily passed through the late trying and dange-

> In my opinion, the contingency to which you refer is remote and highly improbable, that Congress will ever pass a bill "modifying or changing the Fugitive slave Law, so as to impair its present valuable enactments." This law consummated the bond of peace between the slaveholding and non-slaveholding States, at the late very critical period of our history Had it not passed, the remaining measures of adjustment, however wise in themselves. would not have deserved the name of a Compromise between these two classes of States. It is the single measure of the whole series in which the slaveholding States, with the exception of Texas, have any peculiar interest. It is the only compensation which they have received for the great sacrifices which many, perhaps a majority, of their citizens, believe they have suffered. Besides, nearly all the other measures of the compromise, certainly very nature, final, and cannot be repealed by Congress. Under these circumstances it would not only be unjust, but in bad faith, to deprive these States of the benefits secured to them by the Fugitive Slave an account of a thrilling inci-Law; -- especially when a law of this char- ra Falis, on Surday acter is not only authorized, but absolutely about 5 o'clock, P. A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE. THE VALUABLE ESTATE KNOWN AS LEBANON, on Little Creek, in the county of Princess Anne, Virginia, in full view of Chesapoake Bay, and eight miles from Norfolk, is now offered for sale. This beautiful Farm dings usual to such an estate. For beauty and desirablenes of location, this Farm cannot well be sur, assed. From the back door can be seen every steamer or vessel that passes through the Capes of Virginia. The land is of excellent quelity, and peculiarly adapted to the growth of all the crops and fruits incident to this climate, and especially so to horticultural purposes. As a Market Farm, none offers greater inducements in raising early vegetables for the Northern markets, and should the contemplated Air-line Railroad, be constructed, which will pass through this farm, it will be brought in daily communication with New York. The range for stock is very good, and from the Bay, in view of the Dwelling, the finest fish and oystess may be taken. The timbered land, which is very valuable, is only 21 miles distant from a good landing on the Eastern branch of Elizabeth iron Hoes. river. Persons desirous of settling in this section of Virginia vould do well to examine this farm without delay, as they can hardly fail to oval teeth, &c. be pleased with it.

Also, can be purchased with Lebanon, 642 Acres of Sand Beach, embracing Hog Island, on Chesapeake Bay, with several valuable Fisheries attached, it being immediately opposite to Lebanon, and only separate from it by Little Creek.

Also, a SMALL FARM adjoining Lebanon on the East, on Little Creek, containing 180 acres, which has Marl on it. The seil is good, and admirably adapted to the growth of vegetables, particularly sweet and Irish Potatoes. For all the foregoing property, the purchaser or pur-chasers can be accommodaed with any reasonable credit, by paying the interest regularly and giving satisfactory security for the purchase

Should the Farms, &c., not be disposed of privately, they will be offered for sale at public auction, at the auction rooms of Mr. James R. Walke, in this city, on the 1st Monday in November next. For terms apply to Messrs, James R. Huburd and Charles H. Shields, or to the subscriber in Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va.

The Committee on Resolutions, by their chairman, Mr. Hallett of Massachusetts, submitted the following report, which was adopted by the Convention:

Resolved. That the American Democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people.

Resolved, That we regard this as a distinctive feature of o ir political creed, which we are proud to maintain before the world, as the great moral element in a form of overnment springing from and upheld by the popular will; and we contrast it with the creed and practice of Federalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to palsy the will of the constituent, and which conceives no imposture too monstrous for the popular credulity.

Resolved, therefore, That, entertaining these views, the Democratic party of this Union, through their Delegates assembled in a general Convention, coming together in a spirit of concord, of devotion to the doctrines and faith of a free representative government, and appealing to their fellow citizens for the rectitude of their intentions, renew and re-assert before the American people, the declarations of principles avowed by them, when, on former occasions, in general Convention, they have presented their candidates for the popular suffrages.

1. That the Federal Government is one of imited power, derived solely from the Constitution; and the grants of power made therein ought to be strictly construed by all the departments and agents of the government; and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful constitutional powers.

TRIUMPHANT! HUNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, the Rich, the Poor, everywhere, bear the same Testimony.

Read the following certificate from a lady, en Read the following certificate in the dorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper:

Capon Bridge,

Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854. Mr. E. P. Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to your request, and my own desire to benefit the afflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I received from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETA practices. I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed to both my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bothers. tle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this TINCTURE OF HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved.

This is the third instance of relief in my family by the use of this valuable medicine. Two or three years ago, I was laid up with ulceration of my ankle, from the effect of what is usu ally called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite; and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it. until I procured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE, one bottle of which restored my health healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.

Again, one of my daughters was very low from severe disentery, and when she began to sit up her feet commenced swelling which i creased every day, to be very painful-she used a bottle of Hampton's Tincture; the pains were assuaged, the swellings subsided and her health returned-we kept her legs bandaged with strips f woollen until her strength returned.

I have been thus particular, that others, der similar circumstances, might be induced to Physician to be consulted. avail themselves of this remedy. Yours with respect,

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N. Portsmouth, Va., Aug., 18, 1851. Mr. J. E. Boush .—Sir, While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state, that I have great confidence in the virtues of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE. For several months past I have used i in my family, and in dispepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends there fore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted, as a safe and efficient remedy. I am respectfully yours, VERNON ESKRIDGE,

BY VIRTUE OF THE WILL OF RICHARD W. Silvester, deceased, I offer for sale privately that very valuable and well known Tract of Land called SCOTLAND, situated in the lower part of Norfolk County, twenty-three miles from Norfolk City, containing Six Hundred Acres, of which Two Hundred Acres are cleared and under successful cultivation, and the remainder is Wood Land, in Oak, Poplar, Gum, &c. The soil of the whole tract is very fertile. The portion already cleared and cultivated, will yield from 1200 to 1500 barrels of corn, annually, and the Woodland, when cleared, will easily yield ten barrels of Corn to the Acre, for ten years without any manuring.— The land is also very well adapted to the growth of Wheat, of very easy drainage; lies well, in a good neighborhood, and very conveniently located for market—being within one mile and a half of Indian Creek, a navigable stream; and about equally distant from the Dismal Swamp Canal, and the new Canal from the Great Bridge now in progress of construction. By water commucation, the tract is within two days' of Norfolk City, for produce.

The improvements consist of a new
